

FREE 65-HR. MICROTRAX COURSE

EV Charger Operations & Maintenance Technician Credentialing

WHAT YOU'LL LEARN:

- Fundamentals of Electric Mobility & EV Charging
- EVSE Safety, Operations, & Troubleshooting
- Fundamentals of electricity
- EV charging station design process
- Charging station installation process
- Working with Utilities
- Estimating Costs
- Non-electrical charger maintenance
- Workforce Preparation
- Related Careers and Cross-Training

WHO IS ELIGIBLE FOR THIS COURSE?

Veterans, National Guard Members, and Reservists, in all 50 states. Upon successful completion, participants will be eligible to sit for an agnostic examination of skills, leading to an ETAI (Electric Transportation and Infrastructure) certification.

COURSE OBJECTIVE

Provide foundational knowledge and skills required for Electric Vehicle (EV) infrastructure installation, maintenance, and operation. This entry-level certification course prepares learners for professional opportunities in the EV sector by emphasizing technical expertise, safety, and operational excellence.

To register, contact lmartinez@edtunity.org --OR--

CLICK HERE